

Mobile-XL Signs Distribution Agreement with Mauritel in Mauritius

LOS ANGELES – JANUARY 1, 2008 - Mobile-XL today announced it has signed a distribution agreement permitting Mauritel, to distribute Mobile-XL's XLBrowser™. Mauritel is one of Mauritius's largest mobile phone retailers.

Mauritel will offer Mobile-XL's XLBrowser™ through all of its Mauritius-based retail outlets that sell mobile phones and accessories. Mauritel will be able to provide immediate downloads of the XLBrowser™ application for new phone buyers as well as anyone using the Mauritel service on their existing phones.

The agreement furthers Mauritel's commitment to improving customer access to information and providing technologically advanced, yet affordable, value-added services. In addition, this partnership confirms Mauritel's commitment to bringing new mobile solutions to Mauritius.

"This agreement strengthens the distribution of the XLBrowser," said Guy Kamgaing-Kouam, CEO of Mobile-XL. "We are thrilled to have Mauritel as a partner not just in Mauritius but also in neighbor countries and believe they are well positioned to make the Mauritius launch successful."
